

K-Love allows me to turn on the radio and have my children listen to something positive and not music with profanity, sex or drugs. If K-Love was replaced my community would lose our only Christian based station and our children would end up listening to garbage. K-Love's message, music and ministry is a large part of our lives, we need this station, our children need this station.